

Please do not let banking group or any other organization get on the no call list. I live with a 96 year old elderly person, that does not hear well, and trust people. She has already been scamed for thousands of dollars. She does not understand all this tell marketing. That is why I went on the do-not-call-list in the first place.